FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK:

Dear Students, Parents and Teachers,
Our school stands as a vibrant crucible for intellectual and moral growth, cultivating erudition alongside empathy and ingenuity. The recent term has been replete with achievements, from our enriching summer programme to the diligent efforts of our staff in revitalising our campus. We remain steadfast in fostering an environment where every learner can excel through innovative, student-centric pedagogies. Our commitment to excellence endures, strengthened by the collaborative spirit of our school. The latter half of this session promises a wealth of learning opportunities poised to illuminate minds and inspire hearts.

Warmest regards,
Mr. Himanshu Seth
Principal

ENGLISH CALLIGRAPHY COMPETITION (JUL 5)

"The art of writing is the art of discovering what you believe."
– Gustave Flaubert

Students of Classes I–V participated in an engaging English Calligraphy Competition. They showcased their writing skills by transforming ordinary text into beautiful scripts. Certificates were awarded to all participants, encouraging them to further hone their calligraphic talents. The event aimed to promote neatness, creativity, and aesthetic presentation in handwriting. The young learners displayed remarkable patience and precision in every stroke. It was a delightful celebration of art through words, inspiring students to take pride in their written expression.
